

b c r w

THE BARNARD CENTER FOR RESEARCH ON WOMEN

WHY?

FEMINIST ANALYSES OF THE STATE OF THE WORLD

HOW WE CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE

Saturday, 22 February

9:00 AM - 4:00 PM

Barnard Hall

117th Street and Broadway

9:00 am

Registration

Barnard Hall Lobby, Barnard Hall

10:00 am

Why? Feminist Analyses of the State of the World

Julius Held Lecture Hall, 304 Barnard Hall

Neta Crawford, Watson Institute, Brown University

Lisa Duggan, New York University

Lois Ann Lorentzen, University of San Francisco

Meredeth Turshen, Rutgers University

12:00 pm

Social Action Workshops

For a complete list of workshops, please consult the workshop guide in your registration packet.

2:00 pm

How? We Can Make a Difference

Julius Held Lecture Hall, 304 Barnard Hall

Annie Brisibe, Niger Delta Women for Justice

Cherie Honkala, Kensington Welfare Rights Union

Kate Rhee, Prison Moratorium Campaign

Winona LaDuke, Environmental Activist from a Native Perspective

THE SCHOLAR & FEMINIST CONFERENCE XXVIII

s

&

f